is a sad time of year for a Stingray. The smell of chlorine is fading from the air; the days seem somehow abbreviated; and pool fun is being replaced with getting school done. But friendships and memories endure and will see us through the winter until next season.

If you'd like a hilarious glimpse of what a summer as a Stingray is like, check out our end-of-season video by typing this URL into your browser.

This season was concluded in high style as the Rays took a large contingent of swimmers to the GKAIISA City Meet. A great time was had by all as Sugarwood took 3rd in the League and 13th overall in the city-wide three day competition on July 26-28. The end of the swim season was celebrated at McFee Park on August 8th, and what's a party without the Chik-Fil-A cow? Yes, the famous bovine made a surprise stop to visit with the kids and hand out miniature beanie cows.

You never know what you're going to run into at a Sugarwood Stingray function, but you can always count on it being FUN! The fun continued with fond reflections of our first season under Coach Vineyard and her staff as well as honoring some members who had exemplary performance. Among these were Tilley Brasfield, who was awarded the "Most Improved" award after her first season as a Stingray as well as Amri Carbaugh and Eddie Ceausu whose great sportsmanship and enthusiastic attitudes earned them "Sugarwood Spirit" awards.

We're already looking forward to showing that Sugarwood spirit in 2014 when the team will be celebrating FIFTEEN YEARS in the

NO DUMPING

Recently Ron Williams found a large amount of yard waste dumped at the end of our recreational area. A white pickup was noticed there earlier. If you see any vehicle, please try to get a license number.

Thank you Rick Bullock for your fantastic help in supporting the pool at the end of this season.
Thank you Chet Carbaugh and Stingrays for rebuilding the sign at the front of the pool.
