What Does the Fox Say?

The Fox Den Foxes said, "Ouch!" as they gave up a win to our Sugarwood Stingrays in the home-opener on June 12. The 'Rays took their 1-0 record on the road to the West Side YMCA pool on June 19th, and racked up another in the Win column- Go Stingrays! Back at home on the 26th of June, the 'Rays successfully defended their winning streak against the Peninsula Club Pirates.

In July, the Sugarwood swim team will finish the frenetically fun season with two more dual meets plus two other large-scale competitions. The multi-team meets include the invitation-only Smoky Mountain meet (SMI) at Springbrook pool in Alcoa on July 12-13 and the city-wide Greater Knoxville Area Interclub Swimming Association (GKAISA) competition held on the University of Tennessee campus July 25-27.

On July 9th, the 'Rays will travel to Gettysvuw Country Club in hopes of continuing their winning streak. Then on July 17th they will host the final home meet of the 2014 season. Come cheer for your Stingrays, helping them to withstand the Holston Hurricanes and end their season undefeated! This final meet is a bittersweet one for our graduating seniors. Trey Barrett has been a part of the Stingray Nation since moving to the neighborhood in 2003. He will conclude his 11th season of Stingray swimming with a final celebratory solo lap at the midpoint of that meet. The Stingrays would like to wish all our graduates the very best in their future endeavors as they leave The Fever. Remember, guys- Once a Stingray, ALWAYS a Stingray!

Our resident, Ron Williams, is running for Farragut Alderman. Ron is a long term resident of Sugarwood and has worked tirelessly to improve our neighborhood. We believe it is an great advantage to have a Sugarwood member representing us. Ron will appreciate your vote.

Early voting begins July 18, 2014. Be sure to vote in this election

Think of your neighbors

If you are one of the many using the recreational area basketball courts in the evening, think of all residents that live nearby.

Please treat others as you would like to be treated.

Sugarwood Coffee

Join your neighbors on Thursday, July 24th at the Campbell Station Road Cracker Barrel from 9 to 11 a.m. for the monthly Sugarwood Coffee. All residents are encouraged to attend. Just ask for the Sugarwood Table.
