It's Almost Swim Season!

A couple of Stingray riddles in honor of the end of the long, cold school year and beginning of the Red Hot Ray summer:

Why did the teacher jump into the pool?

She wanted to TEST the water! (Or maybe she was just realllly happy to end the school year?)

What do you call a group of Stingrays?

A FEVER! (And that is perfect for the 2014 Red Hot Ray swim season!)

The Stingrays held their first registration event of the year in April and had a Red Hot turnout. Go Stingrays!

Lots of veteran swimmers, along with some new Stingray smiles around the Sugarwood pool mean that the 2014 season is going to be better than ever! If you missed the April registration, there's still time. The Rays will host a second registration event at the Sugarwood pool pavilion on Saturday, May 3rd from 9am until noon. From May 4th through May 30th, the team will be in an open registration period in which swimmers may still register for any remaining spots. Information is always available at www.sugarwoodstingrays.com, on our Facebook page, or by calling team president Chet Carbaugh at 388-8201.

On May 10th, the Rays will be showing their sweet side as they sell Krispy Kreme doughnuts during the neighborhood garage sale. Orders may be placed in advance by contacting any team member. Hot doughnuts and hot coffee will be delivered that morning bright and early! In addition to the fresh goodies, the Rays also have for sale coupons you can purchase and redeem at any time. One option is a fantastic card which gives you a free dozen every time you buy a dozen. It's good for ten purchases and saves you over $60! Bags of ground KK coffees are also available- you can have that famous taste any time you want it. What could be better?

The Stingrays will end the month of May with the much anticipated annual Red & Black meet in which all swimmers, coaches, and parents are divided between a red team and a black team to compete in a mock meet for bragging rights. This event is a fun way to kick off the season while teaching new swimmers and their parents how a swim meet is run. The highlight is the last event of the meet, a very competitive relay race between parents, coaches, and senior swimmers. All are welcome to come enjoy the event. Admission to Stingray swim meets is always free. The Red & Black meet begins at 8 am.

Who can swim on the team? Anyone between the ages of 5 and 18 who can swim the length of the pool. One of the great things about swim meets is that everybody competes at their own level with a focus on improving their own individual times. Add to that a super-fun team atmosphere in which everybody cheers for their teammates.

Volunteers Needed!!
 Sugarwood is looking for volunteers to get the pool ready for opening day. Work day is May 17th beginning at 9:00 AM. Let us know if you can help.
