SHA Board of Directors Highlights December 2, 2012 Meeting

Actual minutes to be posted on the SHA website: www.sugarwood.org.

- 1) The Board discussed how to secure the outside bathroom at the Recreational area after it is winterized. It was decided that a dead bolt lock should be added so no one can enter the bathroom. Martin Cumpston will install and key the dead bolt.
- 2) Sue Conway reviewed the financial statements for the association through November 30, 2012. As of that date, 6 members have paid the 2011 membership dues and 235 members have paid the 2012 dues. In addition, we have received 25 non-resident membership fees.
- 3) Martin Cumpston reported that the front entrance and signs have not been repaired however, bids have been requested.
- 4) The Board discussed the upcoming annual meeting to be held on January 12, 2013. Several Board memberships are open. Paul Hester indicated he will run for another term.
- 5) The Board identified three votes that will be added to the agenda:
 - A vote to make the pool area a smoking or non smoking area.
 - A vote to direct the membership to take collection steps for members that have not paid 2011 and 2012 membership dues.
 - A vote to approve a capital expenditure to install a multi-purpose court to replace the sand volleyball pit. At the 2012 meeting, a capital budget of $8,000 was approved, however, that amount was not adequate and a total of $16,000 is required to complete and equip the multi-purpose court.
 - A vote to approve the Board's recommendation for 2013 dues.
