Coming Soon to a Pool [very] Near YOU!

Swim Team registration is in full swing and going great! This year's team is shaping up nicely. Your next opportunity to register will be held Saturday, May 5th from nine til noon at the pavilion in the pool area. Come on down and meet your Stingrays! Our new head coach David Meredith will be there, as well as our assistant coaches and some veteran Stingrays. This is the perfect time to "test the water", so to speak. No pressure; not even any water involved ;-)

Registration is relatively painless. There's very little "sting", in fact. Bring your calender and your checkbook, as well as your insurance information. Speaking of checkbooks, summer swimming with the Sugarwood Stingrays is one of the best bargains around! (*See fee schedule below.*) For less than TWO DOLLARS per hour, your child gets expert instruction, but that's just the beginning. Swimming for the Stingrays is not just about swimming. Talk to any seasoned 'Ray, and they'll tell you about the character-building, the confidence-boosting, the FRIENDS, and the FUN!!!

If you can't attend the May 5th registration event, you are still welcome to join by contacting Chet Carbaugh at 388-8201; May 6th through the 31st is an open enrollment period.

Dryland conditioning and team-building exercises begin May 14th; we hit the water May 26th, and we'd love to see YOU there too!
