Breaking Records

Michael Phelps. His name is instantly recognizable. He holds the record in seven of the sixteen men's Olympic swimming events.

Ever heard of Eamon Sullivan? Neither had I. He holds the Olympic record in the men's 100m Freestyle. But SOMEBODY somewhere knows him and cheered their heart out for him as he won that race.

The same holds for summer swim league. Somebody cares about every single lane in every single race. Someone cared about the swimmers who took second after Phelps and Sullivan too because it was truly quite an accomplishment and possibly their personal best time. That's the thing about swimming. Someone is on the deck for YOUR race who cares about YOUR goal, be that to finish the race, to master the turn, to better your time, or to be the first to touch the wall.

Speaking of records... your Stingrays are off to a record start in 2013! The April registration saw more smiles than ever before. There were smiles of all ages and sizes. There were familiar smiles and new ones, nervous smiles and confident, some barely three feet off the ground while others were well over six feet up.

And there's room for your smile too. May 4th the 'Rays will be gathering at the pool pavilion for one more sign-up opportunity. The coaches and veteran Stingrays will be there to answer your questions and introduce you to other swimmers who will be in your age group. Don't miss it!

How would you like to support your swim team without even getting wet? You'll get your chance May 11th when the Stingrays host their annual Car Wash & Bake Sale. Our kids swim fast and scrub enthusiastically, and our moms bake really well, so you don't want to miss this! Bring your cars and your appetite to the corner of Butternut & Broadwood that Saturday during the neighborhood garage sale. Proceeds go toward necessities like lane lines and diving blocks, necessities to host a successful swim meet.

A few days later, the swimmers go from the wet car wash back to dry (temporarily) with Dry-Land Practices. Mondays and Thursdays beginning on the 13th, the coaching staff will lead the team in some fun team-building exercises and start conditioning training to get those muscles ready to hit the water for the first in-the-water practice on Tuesday the 28th.

It's a busy May for Stingrays, leading into a GREAT summer that's sure to hold record-breaking memories for a lot of smiling girls and boys. Want to be one of them? More information is always available (including Stingray records) at www.SugarwoodStingrays.org. We also have a group on Facebook, and our president, Chet Carbaugh, is always happy to answer swim team questions. His phone number is 388-8201.

A RECORD NUMBER OF 'RAYS IN THE WATER! (soon)
